Subject: I oppose Wal-Mart's increasing concentration of power

Wal-mart has already caused enough damage by putting many small stores out of business. They want to be your convenience store, your mechanic, your pharmacy, and now your bank! While this may seem good - and the natural "progression" of capitalism (more goods and services for less money through competition) - I believe Wal-Mart is competing unfairly because it is so large. It is almost IMPOSSIBLE to compete with this corporation. If we let them keep growing and taking from our country's pockets, we may as well consider the American dream to be working for Wal-Mart (without insurance), shopping there for everything you could possibly want, and never having to leave the place!

Wal-Mart is big enough. Please consider my comments along with all the others who feel this deserves some serious consideration before making your decision. Thank you so much! We are all depending on you to look out for the best interest of all Americans!
